

Sarah Artis Bio

Sarah Artis is the owner & operator of Sarah & Company Communications. Sarah moved to Terrace “for a summer” to work as a reporter at the local newspaper. Thirteen years later, she’s still there – with a husband, two daughters, a pick-up truck, three pairs of skis, four mountain bikes, and many more toys, living the fabulous Northern life.

Sarah & Company Communications works with organizations in Northern BC, focused on empowering communities and people. Clients include various First Nations, governments, government agencies, community and economic development organizations, and businesses that genuinely care for the communities and people they work with and for. Services include copywriting, strategy, and training. Sarah also writes freelance articles and is working on getting more speaking gigs like this so she can travel more – another passion of hers.
